REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2019/03828

I write in connection with your request for information received on 12th June. I note you seek access to the following information:

Under the Freedom of Information Act please can you provide me with the address of all police stations within your constabulary and tell me for each individual one whether they have the following services:

- A front counter open to the public
- Fully functioning holding cells that are available on a day to day basis.

How many police stations did the constabulary have in 2010? How many of these stations had functioning holding cells?

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Following enquiries within the Force please see our response below.

Response - I can confirm that information relating to Bedfordshire Police and their operational stations and locations has been published on the Bedfordshire Police website.

This information is therefore exempt under Section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Section 21 provides that where information is available to you from another source we do not have to provide further copies. The information you have requested is available on the Bedfordshire Police website using the above link.

Further information has previously been requested and this is also attached please see the document marked as Annex A – FOI2019 01577.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely
