Dear Requestor

REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2019/02648

I write in connection with your request for information received on 17th April. I note you seek access to the following information: -

Police Station Locations

We are trying to update our records on police station locations and opening times, as we believe this information could be extremely useful for work that is being done within the business about criminal activity around our Travel Money desks. In this context, it would be of interest to us to know all locations from which police officers can be deployed: 1) All Bedfordshire Police stations/offices/enquiry desks which are currently open to the public (along with their address, postcode and opening times). 2) All Bedfordshire Police stations/offices which are currently operational, but are not open to the public (along with their address and postcode).

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

Following enquiries conducted by Bedfordshire Police please see our response below: -

Response - I can confirm that information relating to Police Station Locations has been published previously please see the attached document marked as Annex A – FOI2019 01577.

This information is therefore exempt under Section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Section 21 provides that where information is available to you from another source we do not have to provide further copies. The information you have requested is attached and will be sent for publishing on the Bedfordshire Police website.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely
