REQUEST UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 Ref No: FOI2020/00790

I write in connection with your request for information received on 30th January. I note you seek access to the following information:

Microchip Scanners

Please could you send me, the number of police stations within your police force and the number of microchip scanning devices (such as; Halo Microchip Scanners) currently within your police force's possession.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore, in the public domain without caveat.

RESPONSE - Following enquiries conducted by Bedfordshire Police we can confirm that there are currently 12 scanners available across the force, including 8 scanners which are held within the Dog Section, which is a tri-force collaborated unit.

The numerical data presented in this response is an un-audited snapshot of un-published data sourced from "live" systems and is subject to the interpretation of the original request by the individual extracting the data.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the above reference number.

Yours sincerely
